WHO:

NANAIMO CONCERT BAND has been performing live music and serving the community of Nanaimo continuously since 1872.

The Nanaimo Concert Band is one of Canada's oldest continuous operating community concert bands. The Nanaimo Concert Band has been an integral part of the cultural fabric of the City of Nanaimo since 1872. The Nanaimo Concert Band was one of the first recipients of the City of Nanaimo Cultural Achievement Awards in 1997 receiving the Award for Honour in Culture.

The members of the Nanaimo concert band (50 strong) are community members from Nanaimo and the surrounding area – your friends, family, colleagues and neighbours. A group of talented and dedicated musicians with a common purpose, to bring quality concert band music to the people of Nanaimo and the surrounding communities.

CONCERT THEME: LOVE IS IN THE AIR!

April is springtime and that means love is in the air! The Nanaimo Concert Band Spring Concert at the Port Theatre on April 6 will feature music about love. From love themes in musicals, operas, and movies to Michael Bublé songs to even a Sousa march, there is lots of music about love. The Nanaimo Concert Band loves to perform, loves our audience and we hope you will love our spring concert. As Shakespeare said, "If music be the food of love, then play on".
